

From September 2017 Duff Miller College will become Kensington Park School Sixth Form

Duff Miller College built its reputation by producing independent, confident and ambitious learners of the calibre that top universities really value. The college first opened in 1952 and has been at the forefront of intensive A-Level exam preparation and attainment ever since.

Kensington Park School is a new independent school for boys and girls aged 11-18 in the heart of London. Whilst the school is new, its leadership and teachers have long, successful track-records at some of the best independent schools in the country.

KPS operates from two buildings either side of Kensington Gardens.

- KPS Sixth Form, in Queen's Gate, opens in September 2017 for pupils aged 16-18
- KPS Seniors, in Bark Place, opens in September 2018 for pupils aged 11-16
